Council to Meet in Busy Session On Important Items

City council's session tomorrow evening is expected to draw considerable public interest with the attendance of a large number of citizens, who will be interested in possible changes in the sign ordinance, residents around Araby Point, who are objecting to the erection of a corral and stable by the Los Compadres and a public hearing on plans for rezoning of a city area.

Gordon Feekings, chairman of the council's committee studying the sign ordinance said that considerable progress had been made in some of the law's socalled inequities. Committeeman Florian Boyd announced that a report on the committee's find ings will be made to council and amendments to the sign ordinance may be asked.

PHIL DELANO, president of Los Compadres with other mem bers of that organization, ex pects to be present to listen to residents of Araby Point protestceived permission from the Council to go ahead with our plans. Los Compadres has no quarrel with anybody," said Delano.

Re-zoning plan of land on Ca-huilla road from Baristo road to Ramon road, is expected to draw considerable interest, it was reported. Other routine business is expected to make the council meeting a lengthy one.

Tea Attracts At Jamboree Gala Throng

Bridge lovers from far and near opened their Palm Springs sea-son, when Mrs. Harold E. Mur-ohy inaugurated her series of eight bridge teas at the pictures-que Tennis club last Wednesday

More than two score and ten the data the gala party joining n the pastime of bridge and auguring well for a most success-ul season. Following the spirited bridge session, tea, enticing sandwiches and a delicious dessert were served in elegant Ten-nis club style.

Of course, all Palm Springs knows that any party Mrs. Mur-phy stages is replete with en-joyment as she has that knack seeing to it that everyone has good time and that the tea our following the bridge is a delightful climax to the memor

This year, as in the past years the funds raised through Mrs. Murphy's bridge teas will reach hy cause as the Palm Eastern Star Luncheon Club is the sponsor and this club will use the funds to purchase Temple, soon to be con-

Hemet Rolls Over Indians In 48-7 Rout

Bulldogs Reveal Power That Makes Them RCL Favorites

Hemet's Bulldogs Friday night vealed the power that rates hem favorites to cop the Riverside county league title by roll ing over Palm Springs Indians 48 to 7 in a rout that amazed even the most optimistic visiting fans.

The Bulldogs started rolling in the first period and at half time had a 21-0 lead.

THEY KEPT IT UP in the third eriod when they went wild and rossed into the end zone three times to make it 42. To that point they had converted every time. Eddie Weiss gave the local ans a chance to cheer in the hird period when he went from his own 40 into pay dirt, a 60ard hike that counted the Indians' only score.

Hemet added one in the final period to make it 48 to 7.

IT WAS THE INDIANS worst rout in years and came a week after they had playeed a bang-up battle against another league with San Jacinto and Beaumont battling to a 7-7 tie on the same night. Hemet's victory made them an odds-on favorite to take the RCL title this year. Elsinore won over Coachella to retain a mathamatical chance

A large crowd of fans plus a gathering of Village youngsters here as guests of Palm Springs ions in the annual Halloween arty, saw the game.

Kenneth B. Kirk returned to the Village Tuesday after an ex-tensive trip to Atlanta, Dallas and New York.

Legion Launches Plan to Display Flags in Village

Owen B. Coffman Post, Amerian Legion, is going to see to it that Palm Springs is properly bedecked with the national emplem on all occasions when the American flag should be dis-

Under chairmanship of Harold Lineau a new committee of the post is operating today to confer with business men and city offi-cials on a plan to place post holders in the sidewalk on Palm Canyon Drive.
When these are in place the ost has an agreement with Palm prings Boy Scout troops whereby, for a nominal annual fee, the Scouts will place the flags along the drive early in the morning of every holiday calling for a display of the colors, and remove them at sundown them at sundown.

City Manager William E. Al
